

The Town of Stoughton is seeking an individual to fill the position of Citizenship Class Instructor for the Stoughton Public Library. The Citizens Instructor will utilize a variety of instructional methods including computer technology to develop and implement a curriculum to prepare lawful permanent adult residents with intermediate-high English language skills to pass the Citizenship test. Qualified candidates must have a Bachelor's Degree, familiarity with the citizenship and naturalization process. One to Two years' experience teaching or tutoring adult learners is strongly preferred. Strong organizational skills and ability to teach using technology. This is a temporary part-time position with a salary range of $19.68 - $22.82 per hour.

Interested candidates should send their resume and references to:

Department of Human Resources
Town of Stoughton
10 Pearl Street
Stoughton, MA 02072
Email: dchatsko@stoughton-ma.gov

Applications will be accepted until position is filled.

The Town of Stoughton is an equal opportunity affirmative action employer