

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS DARTMOUTH
WORKERS' EDUCATION PROGRAM
Part-Time Non-Benefited Position

ESOL for CNA INSTRUCTOR POSITION
Daytime---18-30 hours per week

ESOL for CNA Instructor: The ESOL for CNA Instructor must be able to provide contextualized group instruction to adult ESOL learners in an integrated education and Certified Nurse Assistant (CNA) training program.

Examples of Primary Duties and Responsibilities:

- Teach English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) class, including math, job readiness and civics to adult students
- Develop and teach contextualized instructional materials and lesson plans using WEP ESOL curriculum and CNA curriculum
- Team teach and collaborate with CNA instructor
- Administer formal and informal assessment of students
- Maintain student records and attendance
- Communicate with the Director and Advisor about student issues
- Participate in program meetings
- Participate in professional development activities

Staff Qualifications: Bachelor's Degree and Teaching Certificate or demonstrated, relevant experience. Experience working with the adult learner ESOL population preferred. Experience with contextualized curriculum. Experience with health care contextualized curriculum preferred. Ability to adapt teaching styles and materials to meet individual needs of students. Ability to communicate effectively, both orally and in writing. Ability to speak Spanish or Portuguese helpful.

Please submit cover letter, resume, and three references to Lisa Jochim, LJochim@umassd.edu by April 15, 2017.